C.O.C. No.1561 OF 2007

Dated this the 22nd day of November, 2007

JUDGMENT

The learned Government pleader submits that an order as contemplated in the judgment, non compliance of which is complained in this writ petition has since been passed. He undertakes to handover a copy of the order to the learned counsel for the petitioner.

In the above circumstances, the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the above submission of the Government pleader may recorded and the contempt case may closed reserving the right of the petitioner to challenge the order now stated to have been passed. Ordered accordingly.
